Obtain the Inter-University Doctoral Consortium Registration Form from one of the office listed on the reverse.

Fill out all areas of the form clearly and legibly for accurate registration and grade reporting.

Obtain signature in the following order: (the instructor should not be asked to sign the form until you have received both home school signatures)
1. Home school chair or program director
2. Home school dean
3. Instructor
4. Host school dean (see contact list on reverse)

Register at both schools:

Home School: Obtain the consortium course number for your home school from your home school’s consortium office and register for that course. Follow the specific registration instructions for your home institution.

Host School: It is your responsibility to find out about the registration procedures specific to the host institution.

The completed form should be returned to your home school’s consortium office.

Tuition is calculated by and paid to the home institution only. Additional charges may be assessed by the host institution for lab fees if applicable.

You may obtain information about an ID card for the host institution form the host school’s consortium office.

For further questions, please contact the consortium office of either the home or host school. All necessary contact information is listed on the reverse.

Please note that incoming students may be required to prove that they satisfy state public health laws at the host school.

The Inter-University Doctoral Consortium is open to doctoral students from participating schools who have completed at least one year of full-time study (or equivalent) toward the Ph.D. Terminal Masters students and non-Arts and Sciences students are not eligible.
